Memorial Drive West Trail Expansion

Volunteers from Deloitte & Touche LLP participated in their annual IMPACT Day here at Memorial Park on Friday, June 3rd. Our dedicated volunteers and Houston Parks & Recreation Department employees built a brand new 3,000 foot trail along Memorial Drive towards the west end of the park!

Thanks to all our volunteers! You have made Memorial Park a better place for all Houstonians!

Memorial Park History Corner

Do you know why Memorial Park is named, "Memorial"?

Our great city park was once the site of a World War I training base named Camp Logan. The park was established in 1924 as a permanent, natural memorial to the soldiers of Camp Logan.

Lieberman Trail Clearing

On Saturday, May 7th, volunteers from the Houston Area Road Runners Association and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints: Westfield Ward came out to help remove invasive plants along the Lieberman Trail.

The Conservancy would like to thank all of our great volunteers for helping to maintain and improve Houston's favorite running trail!
